Some inventive genlus called yesterday's two-year-old stake the whippet stakes. This was not in itself flattering to the Horses entered, but there was another odd coincidence Mr. A. H. Count Schomberg Walked Over. London, July 30.-The racing at Goodwood to-day was disappointing, as M. R. handicaps, which will be run at Brighton to-mor-Lebaudy's four-year-old Count Schomberg row are as follows:

Two regulation "stock tickers" have been stow, 100 added to the appointments of the Brands are race course. One is located under the grand 103 sland, the other in the betting inclosure. Mr. Joseph E. Sengram's stable was shipped to Detroit yesterday. The intention is only to fulfil the numerous stable engagements and then return after about fifteen days. Lady inex went with the Canadian string.

Although the racing situation in Virginia has in no way cleanged, it is apparently the intention to open the outlaw tracks as soon as racing stops in Maryland. Owners are so confident that they have actually applied for stable accommodations.
